

ISRAEL DAY RALLY IN MONTREAL

Montreal Celebrates Israel Day Downtown

Montreal's annual Israel Day Rally is one of the world's largest public expressions of solidarity with the State and people of Israel. Thousands of Montrealers will come together to celebrate the 68th anniversary of the re-establishment of the State of Israel.

People from all walks of life, students, seniors, politicians, Jews, Christians... will gather on May 12, 2016 at 11:00 am at Phillips Square and will then march along Rene Levesque to Place du Canada where the celebration will continue with live entertainment by New York's gospel singer Joshua Nelson.

This year's Israel Day Rally will be addressed via video by Canada's Prime Minister Justin Trudeau and Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. The Conservative Party leader, Rona Ambrose, will bring greetings on behalf of the opposition
